

THE YOKOHAMA SPECIE BANK,

Limited.

ESTABLISHED 1870.

Capital Subscribed..... Yen 24,000,000
Capital Paid up..... 18,000,000
Reserve Fund..... 9,810,000

HEAD OFFICE, YOKOHAMA.

Branches:

Honolulu, New York, San Francisco,
London, Lyons, Bombay, Hongkong
Nanchang, Pekin, Shanghai, Tientsin
Kobe, Nagasaki, Tokio.

The Bank buys and receives for collection Bills of Exchange, issues Drafts and Letters of Credit, and transacts a general banking business.

Honolulu Branch 67 King Street

CORPORATION NOTICES.

Election of Officers.

EWA PLANTATION COMPANY.

At the annual meeting of the shareholders of the Ewa Plantation Company held in Honolulu on Friday, Feb. 26, 1893, the following Directors were elected to serve for the ensuing year:

E. D. Tenney, C. M. Cooke, W. A. Bowen, C. H. Atherton, J. B. Castle.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of said Company held on the same date, the following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year:

E. D. Tenney..... President.

C. M. Cooke..... Vice-President.

W. A. Bowen..... Treasurer.

C. H. Atherton..... Secretary.

T. Richard Robinson..... Auditor.

C. H. ATHERTON, Secretary Ewa Plantation Co., Honolulu, Feb. 26, 1893.

Election of Officers.

WAHIAWA WATER COMPANY, LIMITED.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Wahiawa Water Company, Limited, held in Honolulu on Thursday, Feb. 25, 1893, the following Directors were elected to serve for the ensuing year:

E. D. Tenney, W. W. Gondale, W. A. Bowen, C. M. Cooke, Byron O. Clark.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of said Company held on the same date, the following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year:

E. D. Tenney..... President.

W. W. Gondale..... Vice-President.

W. A. Bowen..... Treasurer.

T. Richard Robinson..... Auditor.

W. A. BOWEN, Secretary Wahiawa Water Co., Ltd., Honolulu, February 26, 1893.

Election of Officers.

THE WAIMEA SUGAR MILLS COMPANY.

At the annual meeting of the shareholders of the Waimea Sugar Mill Company held in Honolulu on Wednesday, Feb. 24, 1893, the following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year:

W. E. Howell..... President.

J. A. Gilman..... Vice-President.

W. A. Bowen..... Treasurer.

E. D. Tenney..... Secretary.

T. Richard Robinson..... Auditor.

E. D. TENNEY, Secretary The Waimea Sugar Mill Co., Honolulu, February 26, 1893.

Election of Officers.

WAIALUA AGRICULTURAL COMPANY, LIMITED.

At the annual meeting of the shareholders of the Waialua Agricultural Company, Limited, held in Honolulu on Thursday, Feb. 25, 1893, the following Directors were elected to serve for the ensuing year:

E. D. Tenney, C. M. Cooke, W. A. Bowen, C. H. Atherton, F. J. Lowry.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the said Company held on the same date, the following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year:

E. D. Tenney..... President.

C. M. Cooke..... Vice-President.

W. A. Bowen..... Treasurer.

C. H. Atherton..... Secretary.

T. Richard Robinson..... Auditor.

C. H. ATHERTON, Secretary Waialua Agricultural Co., Limited.

Honolulu, February 26, 1893.

Election of Officers.

APOKA SUGAR COMPANY, LTD.

At the annual meeting of the shareholders of the Apoka Sugar Company, Limited, held in Honolulu on Friday, Feb. 26, 1893, the following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year:

E. D. Tenney..... President.

C. M. Cooke..... Vice-President.

C. H. Atherton..... Secretary.

W. A. Bowen..... Treasurer.

J. B. Castle..... Auditor.

The above named officers also constitute the Board of Directors for the ensuing year.

C. H. ATHERTON, Secretary Apoka Sugar Co., Ltd.

THE POTATO AND THE STRAW.

The Boston Globe advances a new cure for rheumatism which it will probably youth for application. It tells people with a violent thirst to peel a potato place one end of it in the mouth and then suck water through it whenever a thirst appears above the horizon. It sounds well, but the straw will probably do business for some years to come.

Want ads in the Star bring quick results. Three lines three times for 25 cents.

Fine Job Printing, Star Office.

Jesse Moore
A. A. Whiskey
*BEST OLD WHISKEYMaldonado & Co.
(INC.)

Spreckels Building,

Honolulu, H. I.

General Export Agents For
JESSE MOORE-HUNT CO.
San Francisco Cal. and Louis-ville Ky.

CAN DO OUR OWN NOW.

The following is the correspondence that has passed between the Home Rule and Democratic committees relative to an appeal to Congress for County Act legislation:

Headquarters of the Home Rule Party, Honolulu, T. H., Feb. 23rd, 1893.

T. H. TURILL, Esq., Vice-Chairman Terri-torial Central Committee of the Democratic Party.

Dear Sir—In the cause of free and liberal institutions for Hawaii, it seems to be of the highest importance that political organizations join in urging Congress to make such amendments to the Organic Act as will remove all legal impediments to the establishment of County and Municipal Government in Hawaii. Following the recent opinion of the Supreme Court, the belief is expressed in many quarters that, without Congressional action, no County legislation on the part of this Territory as will give to the people the rights of local self-government can successfully withstand the legal tests that may be brought to invalidate the same.

With this object in view, the undersigned representing a large number of the electorate of this Territory invite the co-operation of your political organization in a joint committee meeting to discuss the best and most effective way of insuring legislative relief if such a course is deemed advisable in the interest of County Government.

Very respectfully,
D. KALABOKALANI,
Chairman,

Headquarters Democratic Party,
Honolulu, March 1, 1893.

Hon. D. Kalabokalani, Chairman of the Home Rule Party.

Sir—I am directed by the Central Committee of the Democratic Party of Hawaii, to notify you, that at a meeting of said Committee held on the evening of the 29th of February, 1893, called for the purpose of considering your communication of the 3rd of February, 1893, relative to "all political organizations joining in urging Congress to make such amendments to the Organic Act as will remove all legal impediments to the establishment of County and Municipal Government in Hawaii," that the following resolution was unanimously passed by said meeting:

"Resolved, that the Democratic Party of the Territory of Hawaii is unanimous in favor of County Government for this Territory, as is shown by its several platforms; and further, that this Party is opposed to any appeal to Congress for aid in securing said County Government; and further, that we deem it future perfectly secure in the electorate of this Territory."

Yours very truly,
F. TURILL,
Vice-Chairman Democratic Central Committee.

Edmund H. Hart, Secretary.

COURT NOTES.

H. Hackfeld & Co., Ltd., have entered a demurral to the complaint of Clark & Henry against itself and Castle & Cooke, Ltd. It sets forth that if $26,000 was guaranteed to plaintiffs on account of dredging Pearl Harbor it was done so by the Oahu Sugar Co., Ltd., and the Ewa Plantation Co., Ltd., and not by this defendant.

W. L. Howard, administrator of the estate of August Kraft, deceased, has appealed from the decision of the Civil Court in probate denying him certain commissions. His attorney is P. L. Weaver.

Bishop & Co. have filed a disconting-uance of their suit against H. W. Robinson, W. H. Castle, Jr., and E. H. Paris, defendants Castle and Paris waiving all rights to costs, attorney's commissions, etc.

Philomena Costa, widow, petitions for letters of administration on the estate of Santiago Gracia, which is represented as of the value of $161.

LONDON BUREAU.

By Cable to the Platters' Association.

From Williams, Diamond & Co.

RAN FRANCISCO, March 1.—The London price of 88 analysis beats this day is 8 shillings. The last previous quotation was February 29, 8 shillings 1/2 pence.

Want ads in the Star bring quick re-sults. Three lines three times for 25 cents.

Fine Job Printing, Star Office.

HONOLULU
INVESTMENTCOMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE AND A PROPOSITION TO WIND UP
THE COMPANY'S BUSINESS

A meeting of the stockholders of the Honolulu Investment Company was held last night to discuss the affairs of the corporation. A committee consisting of T. J. King, S. A. D. Jones and Jonathan Shaw was appointed to investigate the affairs of the company. The report of Emmett May, secretary and treasurer, gave the following figures: which had been audited by W. B. Fawcett and J. D. Holt, Jr.

Receipts:
Real Estate..... $ 4,758.22
Real Estate sales..... 62,299.00
Insurance, etc..... 35,067.79

Total..... $101,095.92
Expenditures:
Real Estate..... $ 8,023.80
Fidelity Insur. Co. Stock..... 75,000.00
Bundies..... 11,549.81
Insurance..... 12,392.31

$101,095.92

A statement of the affairs of the Fidelity Insurance Company was also read. May stating that the latter company was owned by the Honolulu Investment Company. Vacancies were filled on the board of directors, making the complete board consist of the following:

A. V. Gear, Emmett May, John D. Holt, Jr., George D. Gear, G. Schuman, T. J. King, S. A. D. Jones, W. Henry and G. H. Berney. A. V. Gear called a meeting of the directors for Friday next.

When the routine business of the meeting had been finished Emmett May made a proposition to wind up the business of the company. He proposed placing the affairs in the hands of the Henry Waterhouse Trust Company, to be looked after until such time as a winding-up could be accomplished. He had been secretary and acting manager for three years, said May, and business was bad. Things were not improving and he did not think the present time a good one to try to sell out. He thought that if the Waterhouse Company held the business for about three years a satisfactory sale could be made.

Jones said that the report of the committee appointed to investigate should be received before any action was taken. President Gear ruled May's proposal out of order, on the ground that it was of a nature requiring no vote.

When the routine business of the meeting had been finished Emmett May made a proposition to wind up the business of the company. He proposed placing the affairs in the hands of the Henry Waterhouse Trust Company, to be looked after until such time as a winding-up could be accomplished. He had been secretary and acting manager for three years, said May, and business was bad. Things were not improving and he did not think the present time a good one to try to sell out. He thought that if the Waterhouse Company held the business for about three years a satisfactory sale could be made.

Jones said that the report of the committee appointed to investigate should be received before any action was taken. President Gear ruled May's proposal out of order, on the ground that it was of a nature requiring no vote.

When the routine business of the meeting had been finished Emmett May made a proposition to wind up the business of the company. He proposed placing the affairs in the hands of the Henry Waterhouse Trust Company, to be looked after until such time as a winding-up could be accomplished. He had been secretary and acting manager for three years, said May, and business was bad. Things were not improving and he did not think the present time a good one to try to sell out. He thought that if the Waterhouse Company held the business for about three years a satisfactory sale could be made.

Jones said that the report of the committee appointed to investigate should be received before any action was taken. President Gear ruled May's proposal out of order, on the ground that it was of a nature requiring no vote.

When the routine business of the meeting had been finished Emmett May made a proposition to wind up the business of the company. He proposed placing the affairs in the hands of the Henry Waterhouse Trust Company, to be looked after until such time as a winding-up could be accomplished. He had been secretary and acting manager for three years, said May, and business was bad. Things were not improving and he did not think the present time a good one to try to sell out. He thought that if the Waterhouse Company held the business for about three years a satisfactory sale could be made.

Jones said that the report of the committee appointed to investigate should be received before any action was taken. President Gear ruled May's proposal out of order, on the ground that it was of a nature requiring no vote.

When the routine business of the meeting had been finished Emmett May made a proposition to wind up the business of the company. He proposed placing the affairs in the hands of the Henry Waterhouse Trust Company, to be looked after until such time as a winding-up could be accomplished. He had been secretary and acting manager for three years, said May, and business was bad. Things were not improving and he did not think the present time a good one to try to sell out. He thought that if the Waterhouse Company held the business for about three years a satisfactory sale could be made.

Jones said that the report of the committee appointed to investigate should be received before any action was taken. President Gear ruled May's proposal out of order, on the ground that it was of a nature requiring no vote.

When the routine business of the meeting had been finished Emmett May made a proposition to wind up the business of the company. He proposed placing the affairs in the hands of the Henry Waterhouse Trust Company, to be looked after until such time as a winding-up could be accomplished. He had been secretary and acting manager for three years, said May, and business was bad. Things were not improving and he did not think the present time a good one to try to sell out. He thought that if the Waterhouse Company held the business for about three years a satisfactory sale could be made.

Jones said that the report of the committee appointed to investigate should be received before any action was taken. President Gear ruled May's proposal out of order, on the ground that it was of a nature requiring no vote.

When the routine business of the meeting had been finished Emmett May made a proposition to wind up the business of the company. He proposed placing the affairs in the hands of the Henry Waterhouse Trust Company, to be looked after until such time as a winding-up could be accomplished. He had been secretary and acting manager for three years, said May, and business was bad. Things were not improving and he did not think the present time a good one to try to sell out. He thought that if the Waterhouse Company held the business for about three years a satisfactory sale could be made.

Jones said that the report of the committee appointed to investigate should be received before any action was taken. President Gear ruled May's proposal out of order, on the ground that it was of a nature requiring no vote.

When the routine business of the meeting had been finished Emmett May made a proposition to wind up the business of the company. He proposed placing the affairs in the hands of the Henry Waterhouse Trust Company, to be looked after until such time as a winding-up could be accomplished. He had been secretary and acting manager for three years, said May, and business was bad. Things were not improving and he did not think the present time a good one to try to sell out. He thought that if the Waterhouse Company held the business for about three years a satisfactory sale could be made.

Jones said that the report of the committee appointed to investigate should be received before any action was taken. President Gear ruled May's proposal out of order, on the ground that it was of a nature requiring no vote.

When the routine business of the meeting had been finished Emmett May made a proposition to wind up the business of the company. He proposed placing the affairs in the hands of the Henry Waterhouse Trust Company, to be looked after until such time as a winding-up could be accomplished. He had been secretary and acting manager for three years, said May, and business was bad. Things were not improving and he did not think the present time a good one to try to sell out. He thought that if the Waterhouse Company held the business for about three years a satisfactory sale could be made.

Jones said that the report of the committee appointed to investigate should be received before any action was taken. President Gear ruled May's proposal out of order, on the ground that it was of a nature requiring no vote.

</